PREFACE.

The "LEO HOONANI" is submitted as a compilation merely as far as the tunes are concerned. The aim has been to avoid the use of tunes which have not been proven and found useful here and on the mainland. It was necessary to get permission from the owners of the copyrights to include them in our book, and grateful acknowledgment is hereby made for the gracious way this permission was almost universally accorded by publishers, owners and authors.

In the matter of the hymns, old sources have been drawn on very largely. The compiler would gladly pay his tribute of respect to the poetic genius and lofty devotion of "FATHER" LYONS, whose "HIMENI HAWAII" and "HOKU AO NANI" have enriched and helped to establish the Hawaiian language with an influence second only perhaps to the Sacred Word. Many of the old tunes and other new ones are herein introduced to assist in preserving hymns whose musical setting has been well-nigh lost.

Notwithstanding the excellence of the material already at hand, this book would not have been attempted had it not been for the opportunity afforded to present to the Hawaiian churches new hymns with their tunes which have been powerful in the upbuilding of the kingdom of Christ in other places. The young people have already used these in the English language: now comes the opportunity for the young and old in the churches to unite where previously there has been too much separation.

As to the translations of the new hymns, it is hard to see how this book could have been issued without the aid of Miss ELLA H. PARIS. Wherever the pseudonym "Hualalai" appears (and it will be seen many times over some of the most beautiful hymns ever sung in the Hawaiian tongue) there is the work of Miss PARIS, which has extended over many months. In consideration of the ratio of the work she has done to that of the entire work, she might well be called the Editor, notwithstanding the fact that her work has not extended to the selection of the tunes. Let "Hualalai" stand in the minds of Hawaiian youth for all that is beautiful and elevating in the noble mountain under whose shadow and inspiration Miss PARIS has written.

The many friends and pupils of the late Dr. HYDE will be glad to find his work represented in the songs which have never yet been printed with the music.

Many of the songs prepared for male choruses have been translated by Mr. JOSEPH KALAINA, and there will appear other excellent songs from his pen.

In conclusion the editor commends this book to the Hawaiian churches in the name and to the honor of our Master

THEODORE RICHARDS.

January, 1902.

OLELO HOAKAKA.

O keia buke, ka "LEO HOONANI," ke hoopukaia nei imua o ka lehulehu. O na leo mele na ohi wale ia, mai loko mai o na buke leomele he lehulehu. 216 My Country! 'Tis of Thee.

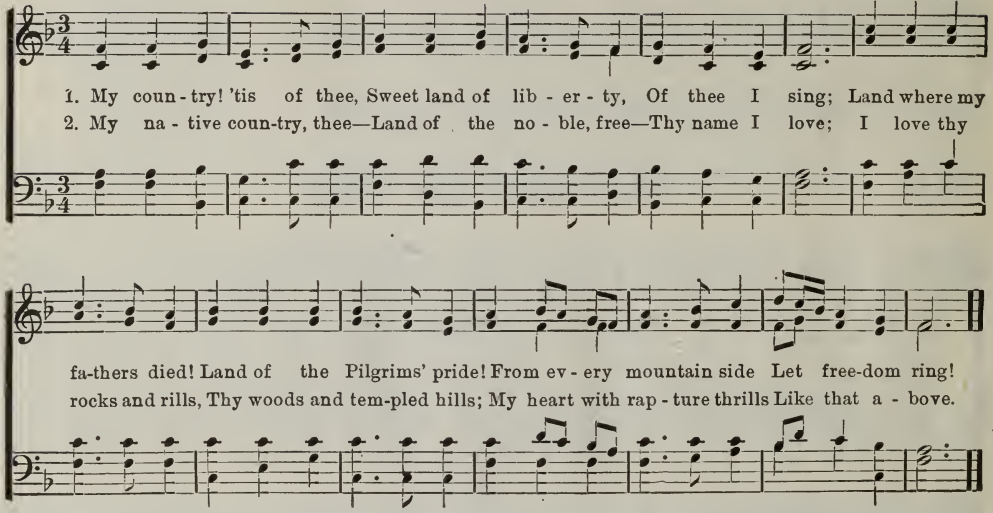
SAMUEL F. SMITH, D.D. Ad. by HENRY CAREY.



3 Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song:
Let mortal tongues awake;
Let all that breathe partake;
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.

4 Our fathers' God! to Thee,
Author of liberty,
To Thee we sing:
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King!
